Creative Writing & Drawing Camp

The Mighty Pen and the Magic Drawing Board

Legend states that there were two powerful instruments used to craft beautiful stories and pictures - the Mighty Pen and the Magic Drawing Board. By obtaining both instruments, any child will be able to unlock his or her creativity and produce great stories! However, both instruments have been lost for centuries... until recently, when we discovered them at the Budding Writers Project Creative Writing & Drawing Camp!

The Mighty Pen

About the trainer:

Ho Lee-Ling is a local children's author and a recipient of the First-Time Writers & Illustrators Publishing Grant in 2006. A former teacher and museum educator, Lee-Ling has extensive experience creating fun and educational workshops and activities for children.

Students will learn from this workshop:

- The story structure: How to create an exciting beginning, an interesting middle and a satisfying end
- Creating interesting characters and using different points of view
- Conveying action and mood through words

The Magic Drawing Board

About the trainer:

Joseph Tey is a full-time Illustrator based at Marshall Cavendish International (S) Pte Ltd. With nine years of experience in art and creative design, he will be bringing his fun ideas and drawing skills to this workshop to inspire the love for art and learning.

Students will learn from this workshop:

- How to create/draw and customise their own original characters that they can use for their story
- How to draw a simple character freehand
- What are the common media designers use to create/draw artwork
- How to enhance their characters aesthetically

Come join us in finding your very own Mighty Pen and Magic Drawing Board and learn how to improve your skills at the Budding Writers Project Creative Writing & Drawing Camp!
